Deputy Police and Crime Commissioner's Additional Expenditure 2013/14

| Date       | Supplier      | Expenditure description       | Cost   | Reason for claim |
|------------|---------------|-------------------------------|--------|------------------|
|            |               |                               |        |                  |
| 30/01/2014 | National Rail | Train Travel: Alton to London | £43.40 | Travel           |
|            |               |                               |        |                  |
|            |               |                               |        |                  |
|            |               |                               |        |                  |
|            |               |                               |        |                  |
|            |               |                               |        |                  |
|            |               |                               |        |                  |
|            |               |                               |        |                  |
|            |               |                               |        |                  |
|            |               |                               |        |                  |
|            |               |                               |        |                  |
|            |               |                               |        |                  |
|            |               | Total:                        | £43.40 |                  |

Please note: the booking of all travel and accommodation is made following proportionate enquiries to ensure value for money is being obtained in each case