DELIVERING THE POLICE AND CRIME PLAN

My Police and Crime Plan provides the strategic approach that I will take as Commissioner. The Delivery Plan that flows from this strategic plan sets out the detailed approach to delivering my plan, including the intended outcomes and the measurements to assess them. The Delivery Plan will also determine how the budget is allocated and the decisions I will take.

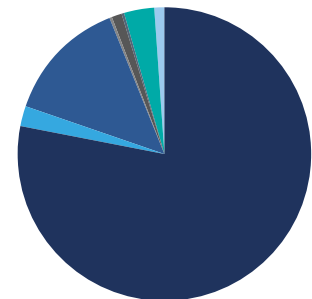

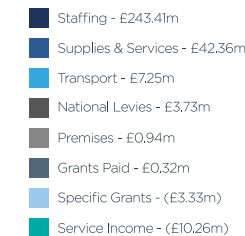

FUNDING FORMULA

The budget for the Police and Crime Commissioner and Hampshire Constabulary principally comes from two sources. In Hampshire two thirds come from Government grants and the remaining third comes from the Council Tax precept, which is set locally by the Commissioner.

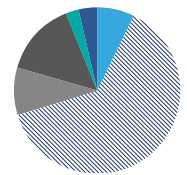

Of the overall budget of £305 million, £284.42 million is provided directly to Hampshire Constabulary (2016/17 figures). The budget provision will be reviewed annually, taking into account the priorities and principles set out in my Police and Crime Plan.

The breakdown of the budgets:

HAMPSHIRE CONSTABULARY

POLICE & CRIME COMMISSIONER

The Government has now accepted this formula is not yet fair and I will continue to fight for a fairer distribution nationally and appropriate distribution for my policing area.

POLICE AND CRIME COMMISSIONER, MICHAEL LANE

MY PROMISE TO YOU, EACH OF YOU:

Stand up for every resident: be visible, accessible and accountable to the people I represent, ensuring their concerns are heard and addressed.

THE COMMISSIONER:

- Is elected by the public and is accountable to them for the performance of the Force
- Provides the link between the police and communities
- Translates the legitimate demands of the public into action
- Sets the strategy for policing and crime and disorder reduction as outlined in the Police and Crime Plan
- Maintains an effective and efficient Police Force
- Sets the budget and council tax precept
- Owns and is responsible for all Police assets (i.e. Buildings, equipment and vehicles)
- Hires and (if necessary) fires the Chief Constable
- Holds the Chief Constable to account for performance of the Police Force
